

References

1. Warren G Bennis and James O' Toole (2005). How business schools lost their way. Harvard Business Review, 83(5), pp. 96-111
2. Sheoliha Neelam and Kumar Sudeep (2012), "Restructuring Management Education Today For Better Tomorrow", International Journal of Multidisciplinary Research, Vol-2, Issue 2, February 2012, pp. 368-377
3. Krishna Chaitanya V (2004), "Critical Issues of Management Education", http://www.indianmba.com/Faculty_Column/FC59/fc59.html
4. Gupta Shalini and Satapathy U.C. (2012), "Problem & Prospects of Management Education in India" , International Journal of Research Review in Engineering Science and Technology, Vol-1, Issue-1, June 2012, pp. 65-68
5. Rao M.S. (2009), "How to Overcome Challenges in Management Education (MBA) in India?", <http://profmsr.blogspot.in/2009/06/how-to-overcome-challenges-in.html>
6. The principles for responsible management education, (2007), <http://www.unprme.org/resource-docs/prme.pdf>, Publication by the UN Global Compact
7. Khanzode V. V., "Recent Trends in Commerce and Management Education", Sterling Publishers Private Ltd., New Delhi, 2006
8. Patel Bhavin Arvindbhai (2012), "Business Management Education in India: Evolution, Challenges and Future Actions". Journal of Advances in Developmental Research (Social Sciences), 3 (1), pp-50-54
9. Narendran, R & Narendran,V(2000), "Changing Scenario of Management Education in India" , University News, 38(50), pp 4-5

