

SCHOOL OF IT Learning Outcome

The School of Information Technology expose students to promote practice both procedural and programmatic innovation in the use of IT by gathering best practices from industry leaders and researchers in academia with emerging technologies in the Master Classes, Workshops, Special Lecture series, Industrial visits, Webinars, Seminars. Personality Development Soft Skills, MOOCs, International Guest Lectures, Panel Discussions, Corporate interaction, and Conferences.

Being student of SOIT, IMS Noida, would be socially sensitive, technically updated for catering to the ever-changing automation needs of the world at large. The students will be competent with various skills like programming, data analytics, digital marketing, cloud computing, artificial intelligence, Big data & including all the non technical areas to automate which will build their ability to integrate information from each subject area. The students shall be in a position to develop entrepreneurship acumen through the support of, live projects and internships along with mentorship provided by the Million Dollar Idea Factory Club.

Various Academic and Non-Academic Clubs of the Institute help to develop effective brainstorming, decision-making by attending & organizing various activities. Buddy lectures have more area to get confidence on several stages of working professional. Further to enhance the technical skills of the students, Institutes provides various platforms through Swayam, ICT Academy, Palo Alto Academy, Oracle Academy, AWS Educate, AWS Academy, IIT Bombay and Robotics Process Automation (RPA) to name a few.

By the end of the 3-year program the student shall have knowledge of technological advancement, coding, testing, project management, standards, practices and the related consequences associated with transgressions which shall provide fruitful insights in all the professional dealings.